- Group 1 - Political advocacy

This group will address the challenges for higher education institutions, and their associations, of carrying out advocacy initiatives in support of academic freedom; as well as the opportunities of networked advocacy initiatives between Sweden and Italy. The discussion will start from current cases of violation that are of concern to both countries and explore how participating universities have addressed them.

Facilitators: Claudia Padovani (University of Padova, SAR Italy and European Advocacy Committee) and Daniel Silander (Linnaeus University, SAR Sweden and European Advocacy Committee)

- Group 2 - Students’ advocacy seminar

This group will discuss the benefits of conducting advocacy seminars on academic freedom involving students and other members of the academic community. It will also address the challenges that may derive from students’ involvement, as well as the potential of transnational collaboration between seminars offered at different universities.

Facilitators: Francesca Helm (University of Padova and SAR Italy) and Ester Gallo (University of Trento and SAR Italy)

12.15 - 12.25 Reports from groups

12.25 - 12.30 Closing remarks

Alessandro Paccagnella, Vice-Rector for International Relations of the University of Padova and Swetaly CRUI delegate
